Notes from the Director

It seems as if we're in pretty troubled times these days as a nation. Financial crises, economic woes, and international strife darken the news everywhere.

But if you take a look closer to home, there's a bright spot right here in your own back yard. Thanks to the positive improvements we've implemented over the past five years, the Dundee Township Public Library is becoming a desirable destination for our entire community.

As I approach my fifth anniversary as the director of this library, I'd like to share many of the good things we have accomplished together with the Board, staff, Friends of the Library, community leaders and patrons. Since 2003, we have:

- fostered the growth of the Friends of the Library from one person to 20. Today, they are an integral part of fundraising for the library as well as a great group of people who enjoy working together. They've raised over $25,000 with their book sales, and last year, began funding bus tours to this library for all 2nd grade students in our district—a first for many.

- listened to your requests for more convenient locations to return materials by putting two book drops west of the Fox River.

- begun to provide adult and children's programs at the West Dundee Public Safety Center II.

- remodeled the library bathrooms in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Recently, we contracted for a building analysis, made the decision to refurbish the current facility and to begin to explore options for a west side expansion.

- created Home Word Bound for those unable to come to the library, with funds from the EFS Foundation.

- transformed the "traditional" library into a true community destination by offering diverse programs including a health series, top-notch music performers and multi-cultural events. Our popular "Showtime!" features free movies with refreshments for the entire family.

- increased the number of our computer terminals, upgraded equipment, implemented a printing and reservation system and began computer classes in English and Spanish.

Most importantly, we are in sound financial shape as we continue to save for the future by allocating money annually into the Special Reserve Fund.

Throughout the years, we have continued to maintain the building, the book and audio-visual collections, diversify the staff and provide excellent service to our patrons.

The Dundee Library's future is bright. Make it your destination, too.

SOMEONE YOU SHOULD KNOW: Cheryl Nunn-Thompson, Trustee

With a full-time job as the coordinator of the Alexian Brothers Anticoagulation Clinic, mother of four children, book editor and recent student in Loyola's graduate program for health law, Sleepy Hollow resident Cheryl Nunn-Thompson, Pharm.D, still finds time to be an advocate for libraries in her role as a trustee for the Dundee Township Public Library.

Elected to the Board in 2005, Cheryl strongly believes that public libraries are a vital component of education for all students.

"We don't want to raise a generation of children who only know how to Google for information," she said. "Libraries are key to presenting students with a variety of resources—books, electronic databases, credible websites, and the expertise of the librarians themselves."

Not only do libraries play an important role shaping the ways that children learn to obtain information, they also help a child learn critical thinking, she added

When her children — now ages 17, 14, 11, and 9— were younger, "we spent a lot more time

With a full-time job and family, "there's never enough time. I face the same challenges as many other working moms," Cheryl says. She makes time for herself with a daily run which she finds to be good exercise as well as therapeutic "think time."

at the Dundee Library, finding it to be a safe and comforting place with something for everyone, and where everyone belongs," said Cheryl, a single mom.

When she decided to commit to public service as a library trustee in 2005, it was because she saw areas where the library could expand, such as improving its technology for patrons.

"Our library's website is great. It offers so many portals to outstanding databases, approved websites, and links to other capabilities such as downloadable e-books. It's especially valuable if you don't have the time or can't get to the library itself," she remarked.

Cheryl was born in Honolulu, Hawaii, but grew up in Beecher, Illinois. She received her doctorate in pharmacology from the University of Illinois in 1988, completed her clinical residency at the University of Illinois Hospital, then joined the school as a faculty member, working in the Drug Information Center.

With one child who has special needs, Cheryl is active in the Illinois Branch of the Autism Society. She has also provided her personal thoughts and experiences for a book called "Souls: The Journey Beneath and Beyond Autism", sensitively written and photographed by Thomas Balsamo.

Author Visit: Sheila Glazov

"What Color is Your Brain?"

On Thursday, Jan. 22, award-winning author, speaker and educator Sheila Glazov will present an entertaining and compelling method for helping to unlock the values you discover in yourself and others, resolve conflicts quickly, build harmonious relationships and improve your job performance.

In her book "What Color is Your Brain?", Glazov's describes her unique way of understanding behavior, inspired by the Myers-Briggs personality test, as a system that divides dominant personality types into four colors—blue, green, orange and yellow. Her interactive and entertaining presentation will show you how to communicate and cooperate more effectively in your personal and professional relationships.

Glazov, a long-time Barrington resident, is consultant on the subjects of personality types, creativity, and self esteem to many local and regional organizations.

She has appeared on CNN, NBC, ABC, FOX, Lifetime, and WGN television. She has been interviewed on radio stations nationwide and featured in the Wall Street Journal, Chicago Tribune, and Chicago Sun-Times.

The program begins at 7 p.m. in the library's meeting room on the lower level. Copies of Glazov's book will be available after the program for purchase and signing. Seating is limited, so reserve your place now at 847-428-3661, ext. 308.
